OMSK GOVT. ASKS JOHN F. STEVENS TO OPERATE R. R.

Father of Newark Man Urged as Head of Siberian Road

MUNITIONS FROM ALLIES WOULD END TERROR REIGN

Appeals For Financial and Economic Help From U. S. and Allies

The anti-Bolshevik government in Russia, known as the Omsk government, with which the allies are operating in Northern Russia and Siberia, desires to have John F. Stevens, American railroad expert at the head of an international commission which will operate the trans-Siberian railroad line, according to an Associated Press dispatch to the Advocate today.

Stevens is an eastern railroad expert sent to Russia before that nation collapsed as one of the allied powers, to organize the transportation facilities, with a view of improving the shipment of supplies and munitions to the Russian army which was then opposing the Germans and Austrians on the eastern front.

The collapse of Russia followed a few months later, but the commission remained in Russia.

Stevens is the father of Donald Stevens, former superintendent of the Newark division of the B. & O., now located at New Castle, Pa.

Omsk, Central Siberia, Monday, Jan. 13.—"The destiny of Russia can be decided only by a national constituent assembly. Whether the future of Russia is a monarchy or the most radical republic does not concern the present government," was the striking utterance of Admiral Kolchak, confirming his statement that the people will be given opportunity to register their desires, signed in the presence of the correspondent, a historical document proclaiming an all-Russian national election at the earliest practical moment.

Later he informed representatives of the entente powers that the Russian government desired the trans-Siberian railway to be turned over to an international technical commission over which John F. Stevens would be chairman.

Admiral Kolchak said he was anxious that the American people should alter their conception of his program of reconstruction, adding that the work of the dictator is liable to cause misunderstanding. He then proceeded to justify the coup by which he gained control of Omsk.

The interview took place in the closely guarded official residence overlooking the frozen Irtysh river. Admiral Kolchak is smooth-shaven and there is melancholic repose in his determined features, which are illuminated when he talks and distinctly recalls conceptions of Roman senators.

He explained that the two great necessities of Russia are the creation of an army and the destruction of Bolshevism.

He considers that a directorate over the country was not feasible, first, because the military situation demanded that power be placed in the hands of one man, and second, some members were partisan and used their influence to disorganize the army.

He said that his aim in uniting Russia would be to create with responsible leaders like General Denikin.

Discussing the internal political situation, he explained that there were three clearly defined groups in the country. First, the people supporting the government in its efforts to reconstruct Russia along constitutional lines, and with suitable help from America and the allies, to annihilate Bolshevism; second, the reactionary element which is avowedly striving for the restoration of the monarchy, and

EBERT PROMISES FREEST ELECTION

Appeal From New Berlin Government Declares Order Has Been Restored In German Capital.

(Associated Press Telegram)
London, Wednesday, Jan. 15.—Order has been restored in Berlin it is announced by an official wireless appeal to the German nation sent out by the German government today and picked up here. The appeal, which was signed by Premier Ebert, and Philipp Scheidemann, Herr Landsberg, Gustav Noske and Herr Wissell, members of his cabinet, says that the government is determined to prevent by every means at its disposal the repetition of "similar abominations." The appeal refers to the coming elections under the "freest suffrage in the world to determine the constitution of the German state" and adds that the present government is preparing a draft of a constitution which protects the free right of self-determination of the nation "against all counter-revolutions or efforts at terrorism."

Efforts are being made, it is said, to "arrive at a peace safeguarding the freedom of the German nation and which will render possible the foundation of a union of nations which will give protection against the danger of a fresh war." After declaring there is necessity of defending the nation against Polish annexationists, the appeal continues:

"No less is it our task to protect our frontiers against fresh Russian military despotism which wants to force upon us by means of warlike power its anarchic conditions and unchain a new world war of which our country would be the theatre. Bolshevism means the death of peace, of freedom and socialism."

Camp Sherman, Jan. 16.—With the demobilization of the 40th Regiment today for several days, the first of the reasons, the discharge increment from Camp Sherman today was the smallest in the history of the camp, only 127 men being discharged, though officers received a total of approximately 1,000 men leave camp Friday.

Officers here state that 10,000 horses and mules were sold. The crowd which attended the sale Tuesday was believed the biggest in the history of Sherman.

It is estimated that between 6,000 and 10,000 horsemen from all parts of the United States visited Chillicothe Tuesday.

One captain, two first lieutenants, five second lieutenants were discharged from the service Wednesday.

Mrs. Chley's throat was cut with a pen knife. A jury shot herself.

FIGHTING CONTINUES IN EUROPE AS PEACE MEET OPENS

Figures show how Europe is still strife torn.

In many parts of Europe and Siberia fighting goes on, sometimes reaching the intensity of pitched battles, in spite of the armistice concluded two months ago between the allies and Germany. The figures on this map show the regions where this fighting has been most bitter of late no attempt having been made to indicate every battle area, since reports are altogether too meager and conflicting for such a comprehensive survey.

1—In Berlin the Ebert and Spartacist factions have indulged in heavy street fighting.

2—In and around Posen Poles and Germans have been fighting hard without result so far as can be ascertained.

3—In Riga and its vicinity Russian Bolsheviks have been in conflict with German and other troops, and English forces have been landed in an effort to preserve order.

4—Poles and Lithuanians have been battling for weeks around Lemberg and Galicia.

5—After severe fighting in Vilna the Russian Bolsheviks captured that city from Polish forces a few days ago who had previously driven out the Bolsheviks.

6—South of Murmansk and Archangel Allied troops, including American, are in constant combat with Bolshevik forces.

8—At Adrianople in European Turkey, there has been a clash between Turks and Bulgarians.

9—French forces are moving inland toward Kiev after fighting between Ukrainian, Soviet and Russian and Russian troops under Denikin.

10—At Perm, Central Russia, Czechoslovak troops recently won a brilliant victory over the Bolsheviks.

11—Fighting continues around Omsk, seat of the government aided by allies. Conditions are unsettled in Transbaikalia.

13—American forces remain in control of Vladivostok and surrounding country.

14—The impression prevailed today that following the protests that have arisen against the decision of the council restricting all the news of its action to formal communiques some explanation or statement on the subject might appear in tonight's communique to the effect that the restriction will apply only to the actual proceedings of the council and not to any comment by the delegates on the general question before the council.

This impression cannot be officially confirmed but it finds a place among the reports in circulation today.

Paris, Jan. 16.—The supreme council of the five greater powers resumed its session at 10:30 o'clock today.

There were present for France, Premier Clemenceau and Foreign Minister Pichon; for the United States, President Wilson and Secretary of State Lansing; for Great Britain, Premier Lloyd George and Foreign Secretary Balfour; for Italy, Foreign Minister Saverio Tancredi; for Japan, Viscount Chinda and Baron Matsui.

Vittorio Orlando, the Italian premier, was the only absentee. He still is detained in Rome. President Wilson arrived at the meeting place accompanied by Mrs. Wilson and her secretary, Mrs. Benham.

Paris, Jan. 16.—The inauguration of the peace congress on Saturday will be carried out with ceremonies befitting such an occasion. A detachment of soldiers will be on duty to guard the delegates, and Stephen Pichon, the French foreign minister, will receive President Wilson at the head of the steps of the foreign ministry and accompany him to the room where the meeting will begin at 3 o'clock sharp.

The preliminary program will include a horseshoe table, the middle part of this table being reserved for officers. The delegations will be grouped by states in alphabetical order, as they appear in the Almanac de Gotha. American delegates will be at one end, the French at the other, and the British, French, Italian and Japanese in the order named. After them will come representatives of other states, also seated alphabetically.

When all are seated, President Poincaré will enter and take the presidential arm chair to make the opening address. It is understood that he will refer to the tragic epoch ending so gloriously for the entente and which for four years upheaved the world. He is expected also to refer to the immense task of universal reconstruction which will be observed during the session. It is the hope of the French delegation that the peace congress will conclude by declaring the session open and will withdraw.

Premier Clemenceau will take his place in the chair as chief of the French delegation, this being his right as the congress is meeting in the capital of France. He will preside over the assembly to elect officers, which he sides a president, will include vice presidents and a general secretary. Regulations for the congress will be read. It is expected they will be ratified as they stand, after which the French delegations to announce the number of representatives according to each country and ask the diplomatic relations to be immediately restored to the person or persons chosen to attend.

acry in any sense, however, for no agreement so arranged could be effective until approved by all the delegates in open session.

The complaints which the British correspondents have made to Mr. Lloyd George and which the Americans have submitted to Mr. Wilson, concede that it may be incompatible with public interest to disclose certain phases of controversial questions while they are being discussed but protest against the "gentlemen's agreement," which forbids one of the delegates from giving information whatever outside of the official statement, on which public opinion may be formed and guided.

Official circles in Paris are not discussing peace nor terms tonight. Attention is occupied with the question whether there will be a reconsideration of the action of today.

WILSON OPPOSES SECRECY AT PEACE TABLE SESSIONS

Paris Agog Over Decision To Conduct Meeting In Closed Room

HOPE FOR RECONSIDERATION OF DECISION OF ENVOYS

Present Rule Would Prohibit All Discussion of Proceedings

(Associated Press Telegram)
Paris, Jan. 16.—The supreme council today after considering the matter of the relations between the conference and the press, decided to call a meeting at 5 o'clock this afternoon to be attended by the members of the press and representatives of the various nations in the conference to interchange views on publicity methods.

This was announced in the official statement of today's session of the council which also gave out the information that the Russian question had been discussed and would be jointly examined later after the various governments had exchanged their latest information on the subject with each other. The official communique reads:

"The president of the United States of America and the prime ministers and foreign secretaries of the allied powers, assisted by the Japanese ambassadors in Paris and London, met today at the grand hotel d'Orsay from 10:30 a. m. to 12:30 p. m.

"The question of the relations between the conference and the press was first taken up. It was decided to call a meeting of the members of the press and the allied and associated countries at the press club, No. 59 Avenue des Champs Elysees, today at 5 o'clock, for the purpose of interchange of views as to the method to be adopted. The meeting then took up the question of the situation in Russia and agreed that the governments should acquire each other with the latest information at their disposal with a view to the joint examination of the question. The next meeting will be held tomorrow—Friday—at 10:30 a. m."

(Associated Press Telegram)
Paris, Wednesday, Jan. 15.—No one outside of the delegates to the peace congress knows anything about the discussion which preceded today's decision to keep proceedings of the congress secret and to limit information divulged to official statements.

This decision will preclude the American delegates, even Mr. Wilson himself, from discussing the formal announcements that are issued. It will likewise stop the practice of Premier Lloyd George of Great Britain, of discussing affairs with British correspondents for the purpose of guiding them in forming public opinion in England.

It has been believed here by persons close to President Wilson that he would contend for open sessions as far as possible. That he still feels the same way is the opinion generally expressed here. It is, however, a question of whether the discussions were to be open or secret reached a stage before today's decision, where some authoritative statement on the subject was sought. Just before today's meeting, the secretary of State, Mr. Lansing, authorized the following as his view:

"The American policy is that full publicity consistent with the rapid and satisfactory discharge of important business which must come before the peace conference should be accorded. It is possible that sessions should be open when business is advanced to a point where it can be regarded as ready for final action. It may be how, however, that in the earlier stage when subjects are being discussed between groups of representatives or in meetings of all the delegates, with a view of reaching agreements on controversial phases, it would be inadvisable to conduct these discussions openly. There might never be an agreement otherwise."

That would not be secret diplomacy.

New York, Jan. 16.—More than one thousand Ukrainians, who are being sent their countrymen in the United States and Canada met here today to adopt plans for combating on this continent and in Europe the spread of Bolshevism and Americanizing one million Ukrainians residing in this country.

The convention, the first of its kind to be held in the United States, was called according to the Rev. N. P. Dubrovski, one of the Ukrainian leaders. Because of the alarming spread of Bolshevism throughout the world, thousands of Ukrainians in this country, the clergyman added, are ignorant of the English language and of American customs and the work of Bolshevism. "Who are especially active among them," he said, "tends to undermine American life."

Predicting that the convention would make an offer to the federal department of education to experiment in Americanization method upon a fragment of the Ukrainian population in the United States with a view of extending the method to other foreign groups, Mr. Dubrovski said that the first problem of his countrymen was "to make better Americans of themselves."

Though he expects natives from other parts of Russia and Austria would flock home in large numbers, the minister declared that "the Ukrainians are here to stay" and there would be no extensive immigration of this class as an after-the-war episode.

Paris—British and American correspondents protested secrecy of peace conferences and announcements that only peace news to be published would be contained in daily official communiqué.

Is Thirty-Sixth State To Ratify Act of Congress

NATION IS DRY BY NEBRASKA VOTE ON AMENDMENT

BECOMES EFFECTIVE ONE YEAR FROM THIS DATE

Presidential Proclamation However, Makes U. S. Dry July 1, Next

Cheyenne, Wyo., Jan. 16.—The Wyoming legislature today unanimously ratified the federal prohibition act to the federal constitution, both houses acting before noon.

Lincoln, Neb., Jan. 16.—The Nebraska state legislature at 10:30 a. m. today completed ratification of the federal prohibition amendment when the senate voted to concur in a house amendment to a senate joint resolution providing for ratification.

Jefferson City, Mo., Jan. 16.—The Missouri legislature today ratified the federal prohibition amendment when the house concurred in the senate resolution by a vote of 154 to 36.

New York, Jan. 16.—Distilling interests of the country, anticipating enforcement of nationwide prohibition a year hence, have completed plans for the conversion of their manufacturing plants and for export of the whiskeys and other spirits now in bond, Norman J. Starnes, president of the National Oceanic Commercial Corporation, newly organized export subsidiary of the distillers security corporation, declared here today.

Chicago, Jan. 16.—The United States today completed the legislative process of voting itself dry.

When word was flashed over the wires that the thirty-sixth state—Nebraska—had ratified the prohibition amendment, prohibition leaders declared that the accomplishment was the greatest piece of moral legislation in the history of the world.

The amendment to the federal constitution prohibiting the manufacture and sale of intoxicating beverages becomes effective one year after the date of its final ratification. Meanwhile the states have dry Jan. 1, next, by presidential proclamation as a war measure unless the president rescinds it before that date.

Congress passed the resolution submitting the amendment to the various state legislatures in the midst of the seething preparations for war in 1917. The senate adopted the resolution August 1, by a vote of 65 to 26, and the lower house on December 17, by 252 to 128.

The legislature of Mississippi was the first to ratify, taking this action on January 5, 1918. Fourteen other states took similar action during that year, the last of them being Louisiana, which ratified on August 5.

In the fall elections the wet or dry question was paramount in most of the remaining states, but the vote left no doubt that the United States was destined to be the first great nation to vote liquor.

The ban on vodka in Russia is never completely effective, nor did it interfere materially with the consumption of more extensive liquors by those who could afford it. Russian advisers now state that the Bolsheviks have restored the vodka traffic.

Michigan, having by a state law made itself dry in 1915, was the first state to ratify in 1919, the legislature voting on the second day of the new year.

The Wisconsin senate ratified the amendment yesterday, but action in the house was postponed until tomorrow.

The states which have ratified the amendment are as follows:

Alabama, Arizona, Arkansas, California, Colorado, Connecticut, Delaware, Florida, Georgia, Idaho, Illinois, Indiana, Iowa, Kansas, Kentucky, Louisiana, Maine, Maryland, Massachusetts, Michigan, Mississippi, Montana, North Dakota, North Carolina, New Hampshire, Nebraska, New Jersey, New Mexico, Nevada, New York, Ohio, Oklahoma, Oregon, South Carolina, South Dakota, Tennessee, Texas, Utah, Virginia, Washington and West Virginia.

Thirteen states have not taken final action. They are:

Minnesota, Missouri, Nebraska, New Jersey, New Mexico, New York, Connecticut, Pennsylvania, Rhode Island, Vermont, Wisconsin and Wyoming.

There were present for France, Premier Clemenceau and Foreign Minister Pichon; for the United States, President Wilson and Secretary of State Lansing; for Great Britain, Premier Lloyd George and Foreign Secretary Balfour; for Italy, Foreign Minister Saverio Tancredi; for Japan, Viscount Chinda and Baron Matsui.

An exquisite trousseau-but so Perishable!

"Not at all, it's just as practical as can be."
"But look at your underwear. So filmy, so delicate! They won't last any time at all."
"Why, you goose, of course they will. I'll just keep on washing them in Lux."

LUX! It's the magic word that makes it possible for a woman to have the dainty, delicate garments she has longed for all her life. And to have them for constant wear—not just for very special occasions.

Lux comes in clear, pure, transparent flakes. They melt instantly in hot water, and you whisk them into a rich, creamy, bubbling lather. You can dip the sheerest fabrics up and down in this lather without injury. You don't have to rub them at all. The dirt just drops right out into the suds.

Do you know what ruins your dainty, underwear so quickly? It's the old-fashioned rub-rub-rub—rubbing cake soap, directly on fine materials, then rubbing again to get the soap and dirt out.

Today the bride can fill her trousseau with the finest, daintiest silks and laces—and just so long as she keeps them new with Lux they will wear and wear.

Grocers, druggists and department stores have Lux. Get your package today. Use it for all fine laundering. Lever Bros. Co., Cambridge, Mass.

How to wash silk underwear

Just drop a tablespoonful of Lux flakes into half a basinful of boiling or very hot water. Whisk into a rich, creamy lather. Add lukewarm water. Dip the garment through the foamy lather many times—squeeze the suds through it—do not rub. Rinse three times in clear, lukewarm water. Squeeze the water out—do not wring. Dry in the shade. When nearly dry, press with a warm iron—never a hot one.

Use Lux on anything that pure water alone will not harm.

HOW GERMAN HORDES FLOCKED HOME AT CLOSE OF WAR

German troops in Place St. Lambert, Liege, Belgium, ready to evacuate city.

This actual photograph of the German evacuation of Belgium, just received in the U. S., shows how the army, disorganized and disorderly, gathered as a mob when the evacuation at different points in allied territory was ordered at the close of the war. The troops in the photo are gathered before the German headquarters with their supplies and loot piled in stolen wagons.

ENEMY DUGOUTS WELL CONCEALED

Woodcock Almost Falls Into One Before Seeing It—Is With Pennsylvania Division.

Elaborate dugouts so perfectly camouflaged that American soldiers on them before they knew it, are described in a letter from Fred Woodcock, Company L, 122nd Infantry, with the Pennsylvania division in France. Woodcock's division took part in the famous Chateau Thierry drive, did great work in the Argonne forest and also at Fismes. For this it received special honors from the French.

Woodcock has received his first gold stripe for six months foreign service, also "red keystone," which is a distinguishing mark of service for the Keystone division to which he belongs.

"I made the trip to Mont Sec yesterday afternoon, which I told you in my last letter. I contemplated, and although I didn't get over much ground when I got there, must say that I was well paid. We got started about 4 o'clock and before we got there found it to be some distance away. You will remember I thought it was a mile or two, but found it to be at least three miles, so you see, to hike there and back by 4 o'clock was some hike and didn't give us much time on the mountain itself. It was darker than a stack of black cats when we got back.

walls, had been electric lighted, had stoves in them and gave all appearance of having housed the 'Heinies' very comfortably. The hallways were all floored as well as the side walls, and ceilings were boarded, the rooms being equally as good.

"It is beyond me to describe the enormous size of the place, also its completeness and arrangement. At different strategic places in the mountain they had, what I would call, look-outs, or observation posts, which were easily reached from one of these hallways by means of ladders or stairways. On entering one of these posts they could use their field glasses and see for miles around or perhaps place a machine gun which would be very hard to locate and with which they could do deadly work. Picture one of the upper boxes in the Auditorium theatre without the top and of course the elaborate decorations and you have somewhat of an idea of one of these observation posts.

"All in all it's a wonderful piece of work, goes through one entire mountain hill or small mountain and certainly required some engineering. There were no marks to determine how they moved the earth or what they did with it. They say there are many other magnificent dugouts, including one in which the crown prince stayed while in this sector. Also bowling alleys and other places of amusement, which the Hunns dug out during their four years stay here on up the mountain side."

RUSSIAN PRINCESSES LEARN TO TRIM HATS

Y. W. C. A. Saves Wife of General From Becoming Charwoman.

When the war work of the Y. W. C. A. in Russia has all been told one of the most interesting stories will lie in the establishment of the first Women's Co-operative Association at Moscow.

There day after day princesses work side by side with peasant girls, wives of high Russian officials make dresses or trim hats at long tables with simple, unlettered women, and the money is used for self support of these princesses and notable women as well as for the peasant classes.

The need and suffering throughout all Russia was so great at the time the Association was established that it was a problem to find where the money would help the greatest number of people. It was thought best to expend it to help capitalize organizations for giving work and permanent opportunities to families and individuals to earn their own living.

The women bring their handwork to the Association for sale or take orders to do dressmaking, millinery, etc., in the rooms of the society or at home. Suitable work was found just in time not long ago to keep the wife of one of Russia's greatest generals from going out as a charwoman to earn bread for her husband, who was ill.

No organs of the human body are so important to health and long life as the kidneys. When they slow up and commence to lag in their duties, look out! Danger is in sight.

Find out what the trouble is—without delay. Whenever you feel nervous, weak, dizzy, suffer from sleeplessness, or have pains in the back, wake up at once. Your kidneys need help. OBITUARY

Oliver P. Buckley.
Oliver Perry Buckley aged 51, died Wednesday afternoon at 5 o'clock at the home of his brother Charles M. Buckley of 26 Mahoning street. Mr. Buckley had been in ill health for the last four years and death was caused by hemorrhage. Two other brothers survive: James Buckley of Columbus and Ira Buckley of Dayton. Funeral services will be held Friday at 12 o'clock, noon, in the home and the body will be taken to Mt. Sterling for burial.

Body Arrives Tonight.
The body of Edward J. Morath of this city, who died Tuesday in Asheville, N. C., will arrive here this evening at 6 o'clock, and will be taken in charge by L. N. Bradley.

David H. Robinson.
A telegram was received yesterday by A. P. Painter from Mrs. Ora Goble, Des Moines, Ia., telling of the death of her father, David Hugh Robinson, of that city. Mr. Robinson, as will be remembered by many Licking county people, was an only brother of the late Mrs. William Painter, mother of A. E. and W. E. Painter of this city. Mr. Robinson was a Licking county product and left this county just one year after the Civil war and located in Boone county, Ia., where he was a very successful farmer for many years. Some years ago he disposed of his farm and located in Des Moines where he has been since, with the exception of two years spent in Seattle, Wash.

Mr. Robinson's wife (who was Miss Amanda Guttridge, also of this county), preceded him in death two years ago, and was also well-known to many of this county, and still has many friends living here. Mr. and Mrs. Robinson reared a family of children. One grandson is, and for some time has been, superintendent of construction and federal buildings in the employ of the government. This young man is the son of the oldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robinson (Ora), who was a baby when they moved to Iowa. Their trip west, which made at a time when people drove through in wagon and many of the experiences that can be recalled of those who started on those long journeys by wagon.

Mr. Robinson will be buried by the side of his wife in Des Moines.

TRADE JOURNALIST WILL SPEAK HERE

Douglas Malloch, Nature Lover and Business Expert Will Feature Mercantile Bureau Dinner.

The committee consisting of Earl Woodward, Sherman Baggs, C. L. Gamble, A. B. Schaeffer, and W. H. Alzey appointed by Chairman J. M. Mitchell of the mercantile bureau of the Chamber of Commerce has concluded all arrangements for the "get-together" dinner of the merchant members of the Chamber of Commerce which is to be held at the Warden Hotel on Friday evening, January 24 at 6:30 o'clock. In addition to local speakers and a splendid program of music, the committee has succeeded in concluding arrangements to bring Douglas Malloch, "The Poet of the Woods," to make the principal address at the dinner and smoker.

The event will give the merchants an opportunity to hear one of the best known trade journalists and authors in America. Malloch is known especially as the poet of the great outdoors. But as a trade journalist of twenty years' experience he has been in close touch with the American business public and discusses the little weaknesses of men in an amusing and beneficial way.

The committee is going ahead rapidly with the arrangements. The table arrangement will be unique and Earl Woodward is planning a surprise in this connection. C. L. Gamble promises that the famous Brown brothers saxophone quartet will render a splendid musical program on this occasion. A. B. Schaeffer states that the seating room is going to be at a premium. Tickets can be secured for the dinner from anyone of the committee or at the headquarters of the Chamber.

WOMEN GIVE OUT

Housework is hard enough when healthy. Every Newark woman who is having backache, blue and nervous spells, dizzy headaches and kidney or bladder trouble, should be glad to heed this Newark woman's experience.

Mrs. Chas. Gartner, 131 South Second street, says: "About a year ago my back gave me a great deal of trouble. I couldn't sweep my house, wash or iron but what I suffered severely from dull pains across the small of my back. I often had to go and sit down and leave my work undone. Another of the family had been helped so much by Doan's Kidney Pills that I bought some at Evans' drug store. They benefited me right from the start and I kept using them until they cured me completely." (Statement given September 15, 1914).

LASTING RESULTS.

On February 7, 1917, Mrs. Gartner said: "I gladly praise Doan's Kidney Pills again. The cure they made for me when I was suffering from kidney trouble has been permanent."

"INTERNAL BATHS PUT ME IN THE BEST OF CONDITION"

Jas. S. Sheridan, chief of police, writes Tyrrell's Hygienic Institute of New York as follows:

"Should I withhold the knowledge I have of the J. B. L. Cascade and the wonderful benefits I have received from same, I would be guilty of withholding knowledge that people in general should have. I was troubled with chronic constipation, liver and bowel trouble. I have used the 'Cascade' for a number of years and now find myself in the best of condition. Previous to the use of the 'Cascade' the pains in my back and bowels became very annoying, but since using the 'Cascade' those troubles have entirely disappeared."

This is but one of thousands of the same kind of letters received by Dr. Chas. A. Tyrrell of New York, the inventor of the "J. B. L. Cascade."

By a purely natural process of properly using warm water, the "J. B. L. Cascade" removes all the poisonous waste from the lower intestine, which physicians agree is the cause of 95% of all human ailments.

Hudson Avenue Pharmacy, R. L. Williams, proprietor, 322 Hudson avenue, corner Oak street, Newark, O., have filled an enormous demand for "J. B. L. Cascade" in the past few years, and will show and explain it to you on request. An interesting booklet on Internal Bathing—"Why Man of To-Day Is Only 50% Efficient"—can be obtained at their store free of any cost.

POWERFUL PILE REMEDY DISCOVERED

Has never Failed to End Most Obstinate Cases of Piles in Few Days.

For years it has been proved that so-called external remedies applied to or inserted in the rectum cannot cure piles, and at the best can only give temporary relief. Surgical operations also do not remove this cause, but simply the formation.

This wonderful prescription known as Miro Pile Remedy is so efficient in the treatment of piles, that even chronic cases of from 20 to 30 years standing with profuse bleeding have been completely cured in from three to ten days. Think of it! Just a few doses of a carefully balanced prescription and the most persistent case of piles is absorbed, never to return.

All pharmacists dispense Miro or can get it for you on short notice. Surely it's worth the little trouble to obtain it to be rid of piles forever.

IMPORTANT: What is known as itching piles are not piles in the true sense of the word, although this condition may accompany a true case of piles. For this condition Miro Pile Remedy has been prepared as in such cases it is not necessary to take the internal prescription. For sale at T. J. Evans' Pharmacy. (Adv.)

Try Pineapple Jiffy-Jell

Pineapple is a flavor which must be sealed to keep. We seal it in a vial.

We use half a ripe pineapple to make the flavor for one Jiffy-Jell dessert. So you get a wealth of this delightful taste.

Jiffy-Jell comes ready sweetened. The bottle of flavor comes in the package. And it costs a trifle. One package makes instant dessert for six.

GEM.

One of the most distinctive achievements in the realm of motion pictures has been recorded in "Together," the charming Bluebird photoplay in which beautiful Violet Mersereau portrays three roles—a mother, daughter and son. When the picture, which is made in five reels, comes to the Gem theatre on Friday Miss Mersereau will be seen in several thrilling scenes, playing dual roles.

In one scene in particular she is seen actually engaged in a fight, as Laura Standhope, with herself in the part of Larry the Kid. This scene is star, has in this picture a vehicle in which she appears to signal advantage. Miss Burke is a comedienne of exceptional ability, and her magnetism and charm have gained for her an immense clientele of admirers in every city or hamlet in which motion pictures are shown. Her portrayal of the romantic convent-bred girl in this photoplay is at once fascinating and artistic, and it doubtless will be acclaimed by the public as one in which her art reaches and maintains its usual high standard.

"Let's Get a Divorce" is based upon "Divorcens," the celebrated play by Victorien Sardou, and in its adaptation came enthusiastic over "The Birth of a Nation," and "Intolerance" would expect something big from him in this latest picture, and therefore instead of trying to outdo himself in staging gigantic battle scenes, he used the Great War only as a background for the filming of a simple and attractive story of tremendous human interest.

"Hearts of the World" shows the happy, peaceful life of the people of a small village before the grim horror war reared its ugly head over the horizon. The causes that led up to the war are shown; the meeting of the English Parliament on the eventful night when the vote was cast for war; the session of the French Senate voting upon the declaration of war; the session of the cabinet awaiting the fatal hour when the ultimatum to Germany would expire. These scenes come one of the most successful double exposures yet made.

GRAND.

Comparing the frivolities of society with home life, love and motherhood, stressing the elaborateness of toilettes and gowns in what are ironically called the "higher walks of life," playing upon the problems of a stepmother who uses "only decency and civility" from the man she has wedded without love and a daughter nearly as old as herself—such are points in "The Heart of Rachael," a new production starring Bessie Barriscale, issued by Hodkinson Service coming to the Grand theatre for two days, beginning today.

Billie Burke.

Billie Burke, the dainty Paramount

none of the beauties of the stage version has been lost. The story is that of a girl with a romantic nature who lives in a convent in Southern France, and who secretly indulges in harmless flirtations. She was a student and later, when she believes she loves another man, an officer whose fine uniform attracts her, she begs her husband for a divorce. He apparently consents to this, but the romantic wife finally realizes her error and becomes a loving, practical-minded woman. At the Auditorium Friday and Saturday.

Jack Pickford.

For Jack Pickford's newest Paramount picture, to be shown at the Auditorium Sunday, "His Majesty Bunker Bean," it was necessary to show the interior of the tomb of Napoleon, which is situated in Paris. All photographs obtainable showed only one side, giving no indication whatever of what was on the other side. Finally, a telegram to New York brought photographs and an exact replica of the inside of the tomb of the famous Emperor was made at the studio, some two or three weeks being spent in reproducing every detail of the famous mausoleum, although it appears on the screen for a few seconds only.

This feature comes to the Auditorium Sunday.

"Hearts of the World."

"Hearts of the World," the supreme triumph of D. W. Griffith, which is to return to the Auditorium next Monday night for an engagement of three nights and two matinees, inaugurates a new era in the realm of dramatic art. Here, with the great war as a background, Mr. Griffith has produced a simple little love story, and the ages but ever new. "Hearts of the World" has proven the latest sensation in the screen world. Mr. Griffith realized that the public which became a prelude; then the great drama begins when the German hordes enter France.

In taking the battle pictures for "Hearts of the World," Mr. Griffith had the assistance and co-operation of the British and French war departments. It is the opinion of all who have seen "Hearts of the World" that Mr. Griffith has outdone his own achievements and has established a new artistic record which it will take years for someone else to equal, if indeed such a thing is possible.

"Hearts of the World" will be given to the accompaniment of the same symphony orchestra of 24 high class musicians that we heard before, a feature in itself worth the price of admission.

Soldiers and sailors in uniform will be guests of Manager Penberg at the request of D. W. Griffith, at the opening performance of "Hearts of the World" next Monday evening.

"Parlor, Bedroom and Bath."

Playgoers who are familiar with the brisk and breezy brand of A. H. Woods' farces will be more than interested in the announcement that one of the most successful of his farces, "Parlor, Bedroom and Bath," will be presented at the Auditorium theatre on next Thursday, January 23, for an engagement of matinee and night, direct from its overwhelming success at the Republic theatre, New York.

"Parlor, Bedroom and Bath" has scored notable triumphs in both Chicago and New York on the occasion of its first presentation. It enjoyed a run of four months in Chicago and of seven months in New York immediately following the Chicago engagement and played to capacity audiences in both cities. The play is described as a fresh, flippant, farcical frolic in three acts by C. W. Bell and Mark Swan. Mr. Woods makes it a practice (Continued on Page 8, Col. 2)

WOMAN COMPLETES TIMELY MURAL PAINTINGS FOR STATE

Miss Violet Oakley and a section of one of her paintings.

The last two of a series of mural paintings for the senate chamber of Harrisburg, Pa., have been completed. They were executed by Miss Violet Oakley, who has made mural paintings for public buildings in many cities throughout the country. Although planned in 1912, the theme of the work is exceedingly timely for "Peace" is the main subject. The paintings measure twelve and one-half feet by eight feet. They will be unveiled by Governor-elect Sproul.

not to disclose the plot of his productions in advance, thus avoiding anticipated climaxes, but it may be said that the story of "Parlor, Bedroom and Bath" has to do with the amatory experiences of a meek and modest young husband who is compelled to live up to his reputation as a Don Juan in order to retain his wife's affections.

Auditorium Notes.

No pictures today for Paul Bowser is giving his first wrestling tournament of the season, the big event being a match between Bowser and Henderson, "The Masked Marvel." But tomorrow, Monday, Bill Burke is seen in the Paramount feature, "Let's Get A Divorce." "Romance of Tarzan" comes to the Auditorium scene. This is the concluding chapter of "Tarzan of The Apes," which drew capacity crowds to the Auditorium some time ago. Charlie Chaplin in "Shoulder Arms" will soon come back for the kids and grownups as well. His appearance will be early in February.

ALHAMBRA.

Friday and Saturday.
May Allison in a picture version of Hale Hamilton's drama, "The Return of Mary," will be the attraction at the Alhambra theatre Friday and Saturday. This picture opens with the kidnapping of little Mary Denby, daughter of a railroad president. After the passing of 17 years we find Mr. and Mrs. Denby still living in the hope that their daughter will be returned to them. How a girl named Mary is introduced into the household and seemingly proven the Denby's daughter, her romance with Jack, the son of the house, and the final clearing up of the situation which points to the fact that Mary and Jack are not kin, makes a tale fraught with unusual interest from start to finish.

Monday and Tuesday.

It's always a big event for many screen fans in Newark when Theda Bara is to be seen in a new film play. The clever William Fox star will be shown in her latest super-production, "The She Devil," at the Alhambra for two days, beginning Monday.

Her new production is melodramatic with a touch of comedy running

LYRIC.

The Honeyuckle Girls scored the biggest laughing hit of the season last night when they presented the oriental playlet, "The Isle of Yama-Yama." The comedy is clean and the song numbers are new. The setting and costumes are among the best ever seen at the Lyric. The plot, for there is a plot, has to do with two sailors shipwrecked on an island in the middle of the Pacific, of which the population is made up entirely of women. The situation arising from this fact are ludicrous in the extreme. The two popular comedians, Settle and Leahy, are at their best, while Miss Flora Benton as the Queen lends her charming personality to make it a most pleasing production. The same bill holds the board tonight.

On Friday the amateurs will hold their first place. Valuable prizes will be given to the best amateurs appearing. The audience will act as the judge.

The Easiest Way To End Dandruff

There is one sure way that never fails to remove dandruff completely and that is to dissolve it. This destroys it entirely. To do this, just get about four ounces of plain, ordinary liquid arvon; apply it at night when retiring; use enough to moisten the scalp and rub it in gently with the finger tips.

By morning, most if not all, of your dandruff will be gone, and three or four more applications will completely dissolve and entirely destroy every single sign and trace of it, no matter how much dandruff you may have.

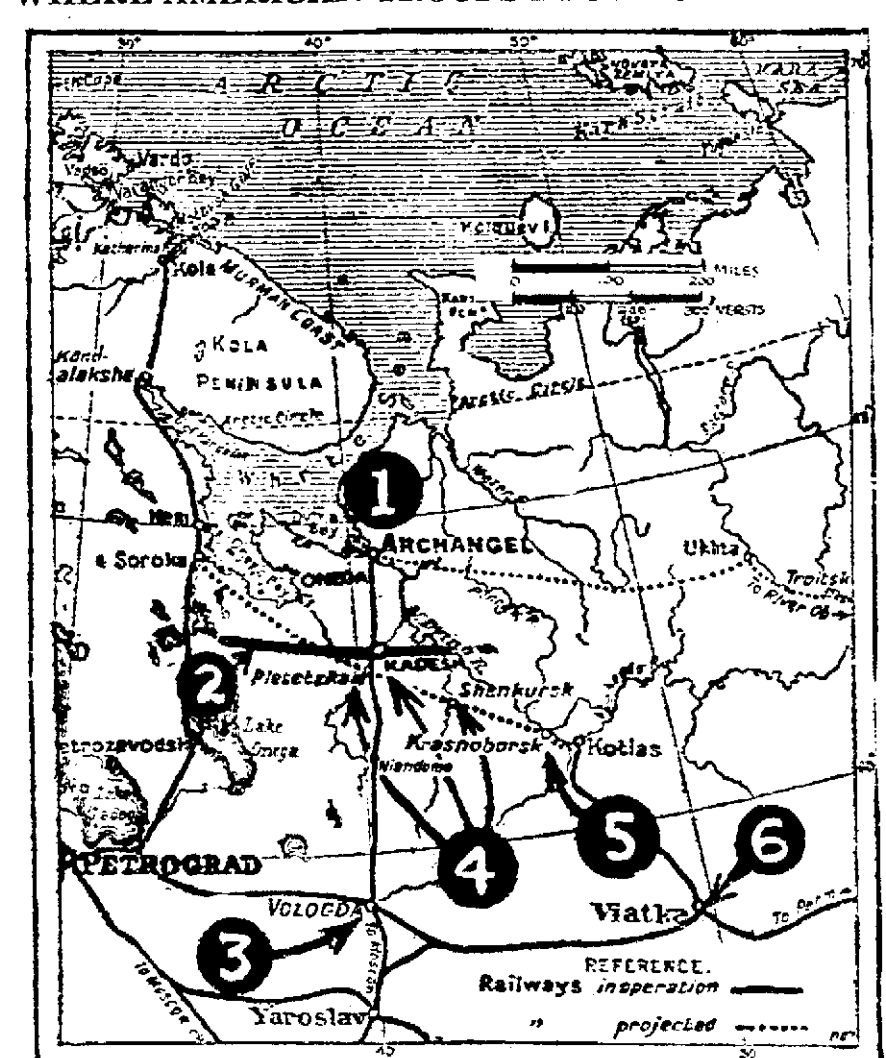

You will find, too, that all itching and digging of the scalp will stop instantly, and your hair will be fluffy, lustrous, glossy, silky and soft, and look and feel a hundred times better.

You can get liquid arvon at any drug store. It is inexpensive, and four ounces is all you will need. This simple remedy has never been known to fail.

UNEMPLOYMENT SITUATION HERE IS SERIOUS, U. S. AGENT DECLARES

Predicts Suffering Before Spring If Employers Do Not Strain Point to Place Men Who Are Out of Work—600 Men Idle.

Newark employers of labor have it within their power to save the city from a very serious situation as a result of non-employment, according to W. F. Schwall, federal supervisor U. S. employment service, who was in the city Wednesday to help the local employment bureau handle an unusually large number of requests for employment.

Wednesday morning, Schwall said, there were 600 unemployed men in the city, involving four to five thousand persons. He declared that few of these had anything saved to tide them over any long period of unemployment and that the conditions were favorable to considerable suffering and hardship.

"If 100 small employers of labor would take on from one to three extra men each," Schwall said, "it would go far toward relieving a serious situation. The federal employment service is ready to do anything in its power to help out in the situation, but it is powerless without the co-operation of the employers."

"When the spring work opens up, the situation will take care of itself to a large extent, but that time is two or three months off, and unless there is some action taken before that time there will be much suffering."

"Public construction work here, such as street paving, etc., would help relieve a great deal of this suffering, if the city could see its way clear to take up work now that is pending."

While here, Schwall conferred with members of the city council, the Chamber of Commerce and a large number of the employers of labor.

Employers willing to take on extra help, can communicate with the Newark branch of the federal employment bureau which has offices in South Third street.

Immediately after learning that another order had been received by the American Motor Truck company, cancelling the government contract for tank plates, Schwall got into communication with the federal employment bureau in Columbus, asking for a list of men needed in various industries far toward relieving a serious situation.

The federal employment service is ready to do anything in its power to help out in the situation, but it is powerless without the co-operation of the employers."

"Help at this moment," Schwall said, "is of much greater benefit than such help extended a few months later."

CAPT. MEEK GETS BELGIAN CROSS

With Others of 37th Division He Is Cited For Gallant Conduct In Action.

Captain Paul D. Meek of the 112th signal battalion with the 37th division has been awarded the Belgian war cross by King Albert of Belgium.

Captain Meek is well known in Newark and his wife formerly Miss Louise Norpell, is at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Carl Norpell in the Granville road, during the service of her husband abroad. The award of the war cross was made in December.

Many Ohioans, members of the 37th division were decorated for the bravery in action in Belgium and among these was Captain Meek. The award was made by King Albert of Belgium and was given for "exceptionally gallant conduct in action."

MT. VERNON FIVE PLAYS HERE FRI.

Newark High's Basketball Tossers Ready For Contest With Knox County's Stars.

The athletic feud which has existed for years between Newark and Mt. Vernon high schools will be renewed Friday night when the Knox county school's basketball squad comes here for the annual midwinter athletic contest. The game will be played in the basketball gym in the old Methodist church building at Fourth and Church streets.

The Newark team is well prepared for the contest and as Mt. Vernon has always put forward a formidable basketball quintet, the game promises to be interesting.

BOYS ARE FINED FOR PHONE BOOTH THEFT

The case of the three boys found tampering with the 101 phones in the booths at the Newark Telephone company was heard before Judge Robbins Hunter in juvenile court yesterday.

The three of them Floyd Dodson, James Brady and Carl Vagars were before the judge. All were fined $2.50 and the costs of the case but the Brady boy's fine and costs were suspended. He had never been before the court on any other occasion as had the other two, and he was dismissed with a lecture but the others were required to pay the amount assessed.

HENDERSON MEETS BOWSER TONIGHT

Eastern Heavyweight Is to Throw Newark Man Twice In 2 1/2 Hours—Good Preliminaries.

The curtain will be raised on the wrestling season in Newark when Paul Bowser, local wrestler, will meet Earl Henderson of Rochester, N. Y. known to the wrestling world as the "Masked Marvel." The bout will be staged at the Auditorium theater and besides the feature event, three preliminaries, in which Newark mat artists figure, will be offered to make up an interesting and varied program.

The chief interest of course is centered in the Bowser-Henderson match. Henderson is in the heavyweight class, while Bowser, at his normal weight, is just above the middle weight mark. Under these conditions of course, Bowser is hopelessly outclassed but Henderson has agreed to a handicap which puts the men on more even terms.

Under the terms of the match, Henderson agrees to throw the Newark wrestler twice in 2 hours and 30 minutes. This will put Bowser on the defensive through most of the match and it is in defensive work that Bowser shows best.

The Eastern heavyweight has his task laid out and his recognition of Bowser's prowess indicates that he appreciates that his job will not be an easy one. Even a 165-pound man can cause some worry to one 25 to 40 pounds heavier.

The preliminaries will start promptly at 8 o'clock so they may be disposed of and give the big men plenty of time for their 2 1/2 hour contest.

WELLS RESUMES HIS PLACE AS ENGINEER

Lieutenant Charles Wells, who was recently honorably discharged from the service today resumed his duties as engineer for the city of Newark.

Wells who enlisted was assigned to the engineers' camp at Camp Humphries, Va. He was discharged from the service about two weeks ago returning to Newark. Since his return he underwent an operation on his throat for the removal of tonsils. He had recovered sufficiently to take up his former duties as city engineer today.

The World's Diamonds.
Diamonds of the weight of 28 2/5 tons, of a value of $1,000,000,000, have been taken from the earth from the earliest time to the present day. These figures, however, only concern the stones before cutting, which reduces their weight by half, but multiplies their value by five.

ATTENTION CO. "B" OLD GUARDS.
Saturday, January 18th is regular meeting day. Business of unusual interest to all members of the Company to be discussed. Everybody that can should be there.

Holstein Breeders to Meet.

A meeting of the Holstein Breeders' association will be held tonight at 8 o'clock at the Chamber of Commerce. Dr. A. E. Best will deliver an address on "Individuality." In a recent test made in the herd of W. C. Miller, one heifer produced 409 pounds of milk and 1565 pounds of butter in seven days. Another heifer produced 420 pounds of milk and 25 pounds of butter, which is regarded as an unusual record.

Motor Corps Meeting.

There will be a meeting of the Motor Corps of the Patriotic League at the Y. M. C. A. building, third floor, Saturday afternoon at 3 o'clock.

Chester Bailey Improves.

Mrs. Harry Bailey and her daughter-in-law Mrs. Chester Bailey have returned from Jacksonville, Florida, where they were called by the serious illness of Sergeant Bailey with bronchial pneumonia. "Camp Jackson. The little boy is much improved.

Assault Is Charged.

Three drunks comprised the police court docket this morning and all drew the usual fines. An affidavit charging assault to kill was filed by Clarence Smith against Willard Scott, both colored. Smith alleged that Scott struck him over the head with an iron bar while both men were at work at the B. & O.

PUNCH BOARDS GET GROCER INTO COURT

Guy D. Chaney, a grocer of Claylick, was taken into custody yesterday by Constable Emmett Forgraves and special officer Chas. Meyer and brought into Justice Jones court for a hearing on the charge of operating a game of chance. His paraphernalia consisting of punch boards for jewelry, candy, pocket knives, flash lights etc., were brought in along.

Chaney pleaded guilty and was fined $50 and the costs. It being the first offence the amount of the fine was suspended on condition he pay the costs which he did.

MEN IN SERVICE TO SEE "HEARTS OF WORLD"

One of the features of the appearance in the city of Dr. Griffith's "Hearts of the World" is the fact that the soldiers and sailors in the city will be the guests of the management.

These men, who are a part of the organization which is seen in actual service in France, will be given an opportunity of viewing the picture without expense to themselves.

A WORKING GIRL'S LIFE.

Day in and day out, month after month, she toils. Often she is the breadwinner of the family, and must work that others may live. Rain or shine, warm or cold, she must be at her place of employment on time. A great majority of such girls are on their feet from morning until night, and symptoms of female troubles are early manifested by weak and aching backs, dragging down pains, head aches and nervousness. Such girls are asked to try that most successful of all remedies for woman's ills, Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, which for more than forty years has been giving girls strength to do their work.
